DESCRIPTION AND GRADING CRITERIA OF EACH ASSIGNMENT

Midterm examination: it will include questions related to APA requirements and writing an academic summary.

Examination: The main objective of the Examination is to review and assess the students' level of knowledge and understanding of the subject material. Examination will include multiple choice, open and closed questions and a writing assignment(s).

Assignments: The course includes three major writing assignments: summary, synthesis, analysis and one presentations (of academic articles/ student paper/project work). More detailed instructions for these projects and detailed assessment criteria will be presented in class.

RETAKE POLICY

Retake of the examination: If the final grade is negative, the student might be allowed to retake the final exam during the exam retake session. In that case the exam will consist of all semester material and be worth of 40% of the final grade. The retake examination may include multiple choice, open questions or/and an essay or shorter writing assignments. Other course assignments (papers and presentations) can NOT be retaken at a later time.

ADDITIONAL REMARKS

Participation: Because of the collaborative and cooperative nature of the writing course, class attendance is crucial.

Late work: Students are responsible for all work assigned in this course. If a student is absent for a class period, he/she needs to check the syllabus in order to determine any work he/she may have missed. Any missing assignments will count against the student's grade at the end of the semester. Written papers can only be late one day and will receive 1-point grade deduction.

Paper formatting guidelines: All projects should be typed, double-spaced (or 1.5 p), printed on both sides, formatted and structured according to APA 7th addition requirements, if not specified differently by the lecturer. Any submitted paper should include student's name and surname, study programme and group. Papers that fail to follow the APA 7th edition formatting requirements will not be evaluated.

Syllabus adjustments: As an instructor, I reserve the right to adjust the schedule according to the class progress. If any changes should occur, students will be notified in class.

Ethics. The strength of the university depends on academic and personal integrity. Ethical violations include cheating on exams, plagiarism, use of generative AI tools without proper acknowledgement, reuse of assignments, improper use of the Internet and electronic devices, unauthorized collaboration, alteration of graded assignments, forgery and falsification, lying, facilitating academic dishonesty and unfair competition. All the assignments and exams involving the acts of an academic misconduct will be assigned a 1 grade and the instance will be reported to the Committee on Ethics.

Email communication. You can contact me by e-mail (lilija.vilkanciene@ism.lt) to discuss studies related issues. I will respond to most within 24-48 hours. Please follow the standards of professional communication and use the university e-mails.
